- Overview: An elegant and luxurious cocktail retreat at The Palazzo, Rosina celebrates the classic cocktail boasting a menu of beloved originals crafted with the highest quality ingredients and served in an environment that embodies seductive glamour. Rosina is the second addition to The Cocktail Collective trinity, comprised of the sophisticated Dorsey and the stylish Electra.
- Beverage Program: Like the menus at The Dorsey & Electra, Rosina's offerings were developed by renowned barman Sam Ross. The menu is an ode to the classics and features favorites such as the French 75, Mai Tai, Old Fashioned, Manhattan, Dark 'N Stormy and more. While the menu places a strong emphasis on the classics, the intimate size of Rosina is ideal for facilitating conversation with Rosina's impeccable bar team - opening a door to new interpretations and secret menus. Rosina also features a full bar with a collection of spirits, a large offering of high-end whiskies, beer, wine, and the freshest seasonal fruits and ingredients.
- Design: Designed by Simeone Deary Design Group, under a consulting agreement with Gensler, the 1,100-square-foot, 65-seat Rosina features a stunning façade of solid brass molding and custom-shaped glass resembling a faceted jewelry box. Guests' eyes will naturally draw toward the warm and lavish crystal chandeliers that hang above rich maroon u-shaped banquettes on each side of the bar. High-top brass tables with deep burgundy chairs create an inviting energy in the center of the space, while reflective cocktail tables and pearl leather chairs line the mirrored columns where guests can find Rosina's infamous Champagne 'call button.'

- Music: To complement the cocktail experience, Rosina features a curated soundtrack of soul, classic R&B, and reggae with hints of sultry jazz and blues. Guests can expect to hear the stylings of timeless artists including Nina Simone, Al Green, Marvin Gaye, Lauryn Hill, Maxwell, and more.
