- Overview: The Dorsey is a “must-visit” spot for craft cocktails served in a comfortable and upbeat environment, with a level of subtlety and sophistication unmatched in the city. The Dorsey began the trinity that is The Cocktail Collective, comprised of the sophisticated Dorsey, the romantic Rosina, and the kinetic Electra.
- Cocktail Program: Like the menus at Rosina and Electra, The Dorsey’s menu was designed by award-winning barman Sam Ross of New York City's Attaboy, Diamond Reef and Milk & Honey fame. The Dorsey’s menu is the largest of the trinity and changes twice seasonally to showcase the best and freshest ingredients. The sophisticated menu showcases inventive riffs on the classics, shareable punch bowls for groups and ‘Shorties’ - The Dorsey’s version of shots but are more reflective of mini cocktails. The Dorsey also boasts a full bar with an impressive collection of high-end Scotches, as well as beer and wine.
- Signature cocktails include the Penicillin (Scotch, fresh lemon, ginger & honey, Islay float), which New York Times named to its list of 11 essential drinks of the “modern cocktail revival;” Coconut White Russian (Vodka, coconut, coffee liqueur, & hand-whipped cream float); Apologies, Wilson (Tequila, coconut, lime, fresh watermelon & Champagne); Coney Island Express (Rum, cold brew coffee, vanilla & Amaro Ciociaro) and many more.
- Design: The Dorsey was designed by James Beard Award winner Thomas Schlessler of New York-based Design Bureaux. The space evokes a home-away-from-home quality and utilizes rich materials throughout, such as French oak, mahogany wood, brass, leather and marble. The 4,500-square-foot space features a variety of seating options such as plush couches, glass-topped cocktail tables and the ‘Bird Cage’ - a seating option perfect for larger groups fashioned like a bird cage at the entrance to the bar and next to the DJ booth.

The interior also boasts a separate library space with a lustrous steam-fueled fireplace serving as the focal point.

- Music: Guests of The Dorsey can expect to hear their favorite East and West coast hip-hop and R&B artists, and features DJs each night starting at 9 p.m.
